

Paying Membership Dues with PayPal

If you do not currently have a PayPal account, you can sign up easily with a debit or credit card. To read about how to get a PayPal account, try this resource: <https://www.paypal.com/cgi-bin/webscr?cmd=xpt/Help/general/TopQuestion2-outside>

Alternatively, it is possible to pay for Artists' Union England membership by cheque. If you wish to pay by cheque, please contact us by email at: info@artistsunionengland.org.uk

There are two slightly different routes for paying depending on whether you are an existing or new member:

For existing members (usually those joined before 1 August 2014):

- 1) Go to <http://www.artistsunionengland.org.uk/payment-form-for-existing-members/>
Fill out the payment form with your details (please contact us on info@artistsunionengland.org.uk if you do not know your membership number)
Press "Submit" to be redirected to the PayPal payment page

Pay Membership Dues (for pre-existing members only)

PLEASE NOTE this form is for PRE-EXISTING MEMBERS ONLY – i.e. those who joined before the 1st of August 2014 (AUE launched with a 3 month period in which there was no fee) or those who have already joined but not yet completed their membership payment. NEW MEMBERS should pay when filling out the membership form here.

The membership fee of £30 per annum was agreed through a collective decision making process. For more information please see here.

Please also refer to the rule book here.

Membership is currently set at the rate of £30 per annum. Membership lasts a calendar year from the date of payment. Once you submit this form you will be prompted to make a payment via Paypal. This sets up a recurring annual payment.

If you wish to pay by cheque please contact us at info@artistsunionengland.org.uk

Members have until 30th September 2014 to pay their membership fee of £30.

Members who have not made this payment will then cease to be part of the Union and will be removed from the members' register.

- 2) On the PayPal payment page, enter the email address you signed up to PayPal with and your password and press “Log In”. This will direct you to the payment review page
