

AUE Good Practice Charter for Artists

	Name of Organisation	Application Approved
The logo for Monkfish Productions, with "Monkfish" in red and "Productions" in black below it.	Monkfish Productions Newcastle upon Tyne	1 st February 2021
The logo for Trapped In Zone One, with "TRAPPED" and "ZONE ONE" in white on a black background.	Trapped In Zone One London	19 th February 2021
The logo for Art in Liverpool.com, with "Art in Liverpool." in black and ".com" in grey below it.	Art In Liverpool	8 th March 2021
The logo for Pavilion Hive, featuring a black hexagon with white soccer ball patterns and the text "PAVILION HIVE" in white.	Pavilion Hive London	17 th March 2021

The aim of the Charter is to improve the livelihoods of freelance artists and increase equality and diversity in the sector. The Charter is made up of 6 principles:

Valuing and Rewarding Artists

Health & Safety

Diversity and Equality

Work with Trade Unions

Social Responsibility

Mental Health in the Workplace

Organisations must demonstrate their commitment to working towards or meeting the 6 principles of the charter in the application form.

Register for the GPC HERE.

Apply for the GPC HERE.

The application form is available in large print.

Application guidance can be found HERE.

Email gpc@artistsunionengland.org.uk